

Mourning Script (4th October, 2012)

MC (Yung Yan Ho):

This has been a difficult week for Hong Kong as we remember the tragedy that occurred last Monday. Today is the day of mourning for Hong Kong.

Now, may I invite the chairman of our Student Association, Mr. Hung, to take the lead as we observe 1-minute of silence to show our care for the victims of this tragedy.

Mr. Hung, please.

SA Chairman (Hung Shing Hin):

Good morning Principal, teachers and fellow schoolmates,

As we know, on the first of October, there was a tragic accident in which two vessels crashed with each other near Lamma Island.

This accident killed 38 people, and over 100 people were injured. The news came as a great shock to many of us who were enjoying the joyful atmosphere of the National Day Celebration. It also brought us deep sadness and reminds us that life is fragile. Accidents may happen anywhere and anytime. That's why we should treasure our life and be grateful for what we have got.

We sincerely hope that the injured will get well soon and the people who have lost their loved ones will recover from their grief soon.

Now, in order to express our mourn and condolence to the families of the victims, let us observe a 1-minute silence.

That's the end of the 1-minute silence. Thank you.

MC (Yung Yan Ho):

Thank you, Mr. Hung.

That's the end of our mourning ceremony.

(Pause)

Today's events will now begin. May all student helpers please report duty to the corresponding teachers-in-charge. Thank you.
