P	Hey, Mary! The weather here in the tropical rainforest is so hot and humid!
M	Yes, Peter! The temperature in the tropical rainforest is often around 25 degree Celsius. It is hot and humid. There is no seasonality here. It is summer throughout the year!	Card of "Hot and Humid" shown by a helper
P	Wow!!! You have done research before coming!..... Listen! Can you hear the sound?
M	Oh, yes! I hear the sound of birds and monkeys. I can even hear the rain drop! It's like a symphony of the Tropical Rainforest. I like it very much.
P	Look over there! There are some Chimpanzees sitting on the tall trees!
M	Ha-ha ! You are very observant. You know, there are five layers of plants in a tropical rainforest. They are the Emergent layer, the Canopy layer, the Young Tree layer, the Shrub layer and the Undergrowth layer.	5 Cards of "Emergent layer, Canopy layer, Young Tree layer, Shrub layer, Undergrowth layer" Shown by helpers
P	I know! The trees here could be as tall as 50 meters !

M	Listen! Can you hear the sound? It's terribly loud! It's like the sound of firing guns. So horrible!!! (very afraid!)
P	No Worry! I am here! (act like a savior) Let's take a look over there!
N	After hearing the sound, Mary and Peter walk to a place where the sound comes from to see what happened.
M	Look! There is a hunter! He is hunting a tiger! (Very shocked)
The Hunter(H) comes out to the stage
H	Ha-ha-ha-ha!!!!!! It's a wonderful day to me. I hunted down a tiger! So talented I am!	holding a tiger and a gun in his hands
P	Excuse me! Mr. Hunter! Why do you hunt the tiger? Don't you feel the tiger is innocent?
H	I hunt this tiger so that I can earn a lot of money. I can use its fur to make very expensive fur coat and cook its meat for dinner. I can also	Card of "Fur coat" Shown by a helper

M	You seem very proud of it. However, the tiger is now one of the endangered species. It is becoming extinct. Please be considerate and sympathetic to our precious species living here.	Card of “Endangered species” shown by a helper
P	I agree with you, Mary! We are not the dictators of the Earth. We need to respect every living thing. They have their right to live. Please protect endangered animals!	Card of “Animals’ right” shown by a helper
H	You are right!! (Feeling very regretful) I really need to reflect on my behavior! I would not hunt any endangered animals anymore. Please forgive me!
