

Reading News with the NET (Dec 4, 2013)

Good Work

1. protest

- I don't like protests because they make our city less peaceful.
2D 1 Au Yi Nok, Anson
- There was a huge protest against national education which brainwashes students.
1C Yiu Hiu Ching

2. lack

- Africans are often sick because of their lack of nutrition. 4A Kylie Ko
- I don't seem to lack anything. 5C 2 Chan Ka Shing, Peter
- I am afraid of standing on stage because of my lack of confidence.
4D 26 Wincy Tam
- The lack of human rights in mainland China has proved that this country is hopeless. 4C Choy Cheuk Kwan

3. operate

- Nowadays, more and more teenagers operate their business. 5C Paul Kwok
- Professor Happy created a time machine but nobody except him knew how to operate it. 5B 04 Davis Chan

4. apply

- We can apply for credit cards if we are 18 years old or above.
4A 02 Chan Shing Fai

5. investigate

- Sherlock Holmes is good at investigating challenging cases.
5A 32 Sherman Wong

6. packed/crowded

- He tried to squeeze himself onto the crowded bus. 4A Kylie Ko
- At recess, toilets are packed with students. 4A 02 Chan Shing Fai

Reading News with the NET

Good Work

1. protest 抗議

- I don't like protests because they make our city less peaceful. (和平)
- There was a huge protest against national education (國民教育) which brainwashes (洗腦) students.

2. lack 缺乏

- Africans (非洲人) are often sick because of their lack of nutrition.(營養)
- I don't seem to lack anything.
- I am afraid of standing on stage because of my lack of confidence. (信心)
- The lack of human rights (人權) in mainland China has proved (證明) that this country is hopeless.

3. operate 經營／操作

- Nowadays, more and more teenagers operate their business.
- Professor Happy created (創造) a time machine but nobody except him knew how to operate it.

4. apply 申請

- We can apply for credit cards (信用卡) if we are 18 years old or above.

5. investigate 調查

- Sherlock Holmes (福爾摩斯) is good at investigating challenging cases.

6. packed/crowded 擠逼

- He tried to squeeze(擠進) himself onto the crowded bus.
- At recess, toilets are packed with students.