Child Abuse (虐兒)

Part 1. What is child abuse?

Child abuse occurs (發生) when a parent or caregiver treats (對待) his or her child very badly by causing permanent (永久的) and severe (嚴重的) harm to the children. It can be in the form of physical abuse (肉體上虐待), emotional /psychological abuse (情緒/心理上虐待), sexual abuse (性侵犯) or child neglect (疏忽照顧兒童).

You are now going to hear 5 situations of child abuse. As you listen, fill out the chart in your worksheet by ticking the type of child abuse that is happening in each situation:

		Physical	Emotional	Sexual	Child neglect
		abuse	abuse	abuse
1.	A father punishes his child by beating him
	with a big stick.
2.	A father locks up his kid in a dark room
	whenever she misbehaves.
3.	A father insults (侮辱) his kid by saying
	"You are stupid, worthless (沒有價值) and

4.	Parents leave their 4-year-old daughter unattended (無人看管) at home.
5.	A father threatens (威脅) to kick his naughty kid out of home.

We hope you haven't experienced these awful (可怕的) things in your life, but recently (近來) some celebrities (名人) have been in the spotlight (備受關注) for suspected cases (懷疑個案) of child abuse and domestic violence (家庭暴力). The most famous case is the one involving (牽涉) CY Leung's family.
